FPSB India Honours Our Authorised Institutional Partner with Prestigious Award for 2024–25

6 November 2025

We are delighted to announce that Mr. S. S. Dhure and Ms. Sangeeta have been recognised as the Best Authorised Institutional Partner 2024-25 at the FPSB India Awards 2025.

This prestigious honour celebrates their outstanding dedication, professional excellence, and significant contribution to advancing financial planning education in India. Their commitment to quality learning, innovation, and a client-centric approach has set a remarkable benchmark for the industry.

The recognition stands as a testament to their continuous efforts in promoting financial literacy and empowering aspiring financial planners across the country. Through their leadership and vision, they have played a vital role in strengthening the professional standards of financial planning education.

The award will be formally presented to them at the FPSB India Awards Ceremony, to be held on November 6, 2025, at the Novotel Convention Centre, Hi-Tech City, Hyderabad. The event will bring together leading professionals, educators, and institutions who have demonstrated excellence in the field. FPSB India extends its warmest congratulations to Mr. Dhure and Ms. Sangeeta for this well-deserved recognition and looks forward to their continued contributions to the profession.
